Locust Valley's Only Newspaper

LOCUST VALLEY LEADER

Official Paper of Matinecock and Lattingtown

Vol. 2—No. 40

Locust Valley, L. I., N. Y., May 20, 1948

Five Cents

Some of the women who worked with the Operation Democracy sewing group under the direction of Mrs. E. M. Ward and made 760 articles which will be shipped in a few days to Ste. Mere Eglise. Left to right back row: Mrs. John Jacobsen, Mrs. George Ward, Mrs. John Wansor, Mrs. Edwin Schlotzhauer, Mrs. Arthur Greenfield, Mrs. William Owen, Mrs. Lloyd Striker, Mrs. Robertson Alford, Mrs. Stuart Johnson, and Mrs. Albert Deyo.

Front row: Mrs. James Robertson, Mrs. James Hicks, Mrs. E. M. Ward with Van Cartmell Alford, Mrs. Charles Breasted, Mrs. John Sembler and Mrs. William Standinger.

Photo by Sherman Pratt.

T-Sgt. Walter Yoniak Honored This Week

Flags in Locust Valley were at half mast on Tuesday when T/Sgt. Walter Yoniak came home. A two man honor guard, which changed every two hours, has been at the home of his mother, Mrs. Frances Yoniak, 14 1st avenue. The men, who formed the guard, all were in uniform and all are members of the Locust Valley American Legion.

Funeral services were to be held today (Thursday) at St. Hyacinth's R. C. Church to be followed by a full military burial at Pinelawn National Cemetery. Arthur Shanley, Frank Goode, John Maccarone, Buster Lada, Andrew Romeski and Myron Romeski will serve as pall bearers.

Yoniak is the first Locust Valley boy to be brought home from France, where he fell, for reburial. A lifelong resident of Locust Valley, he was killed in November, 1944 after four years of service in the Army.

In addition to his mother, he is survived by his brothers, Chester, John and Henry, all of whom were in the service, another brother, Stanley, and a sister, Helen.

HAZY DAZE

Paper Drive Postponed

Because of a sudden drop in the

Leading Man Ill

Valley Royals Plan Memorial Day Game