Highlights Of Locust Valley Day.

May 12, 1949

v a
aza
is
Loler-
the
ith

from Locust Valley he has put on one of the band members hats, which scarcely fits him. Next is Walter Ahlstedt, who is elated over being the lucky shopper, who will take home the set. Fourth is Mrs. Elizabeth Shoumatoff, who donated a portrait in connection with the Operation Democracy Show and next is Jack Bright, president of the Locust ing the Operation Democracy part of the program. Mrs. Charles Breasted, a chairman of the Operation Democracy Art show Third is Count Francois de Rose, representing Ste. Mere Eglise with the statue, which was presented to Locust Valley from the Gratitude train